FUNERAL SERVICES

Mr. Bernard McGuire who has been in poor health for some time past died in the L. D. S. hospital, Salt Lake City, last Saturday, following a very serious operation. The body was brought home and funeral services were held in the Daniel Hall on Tuesday afternoon, with many friends present and beautiful floral offerings bespeaking the high esteem in which he was held in the ward.

Bishop Joseph A. Orgill presided and the speakers were Joseph C. McDonald, L. C. Montgomery, Ralph F. Nilsson and Charles N. Broadbent, together with closing remarks by the Bishop.

Musical numbers were, "I Know That My Redeemer Lives," by a mixed chorus, with Sarah Carlen as accompanist. They also sang, "O, My Father." Asael Moulton, Afton Thacker and Arthur Bartell took the solo parts and the others joined in. Prof. Delmar Dickson, accompanied by Miss Geneva Wilson, rendered a violin solo, "Going Home," and Mrs. Maybell Moulton and Frank S. Epperson sang the duet, "A Christian's Goodnight," with Mrs. Lillian C. Moulton as accompanist.

The invocation was offered by Z. A. Bethers and the benediction by John Thacker. A large funeral cortege followed the remains to the Heber cemetery where the body was interred.

Mr. McGuire is survived by his mother, several brothers and sisters, a wife and ten young children, and they justly have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.
